We needed Haeji for a place to stay
but she has another useful skill.

She's one of the only few in the world who can undo Ki poisoning process.

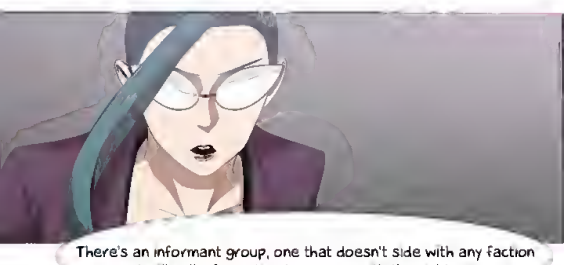
Rock Smith shouldn't even of have had half of his Ki saved up, I wonder how he won against the Young Masters?

Are you saying someone helped him?

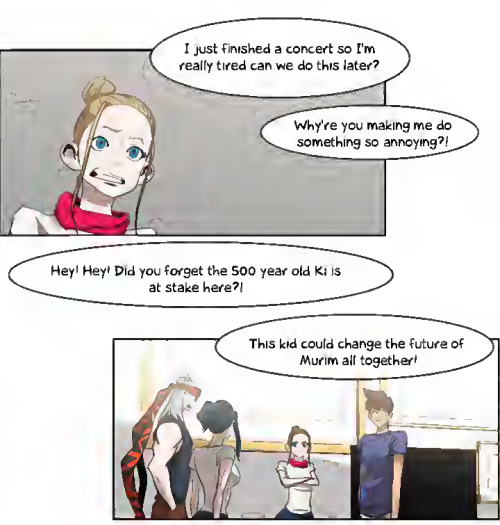
Yes, and someone whose Ki is powerful enough to thwart and defeat the young masters attacks

I may have an idea as to where we can get information on these children



There's an informant group, one that doesn't side with any faction and will sell information to anyone with the right price

Who're they?
It's a restaurant called Man Gang Hong



I just finished a concert so I'm really tired can we do this later?
Why're you making me do something so annoying?!
Hey! Hey! Did you forget the 500 year old Ki is at stake here?!

Why're we running away?!
We need to obliterate that guy into pieces!!

Sfx: Swing Swing~

That's reckless just listen to me please!

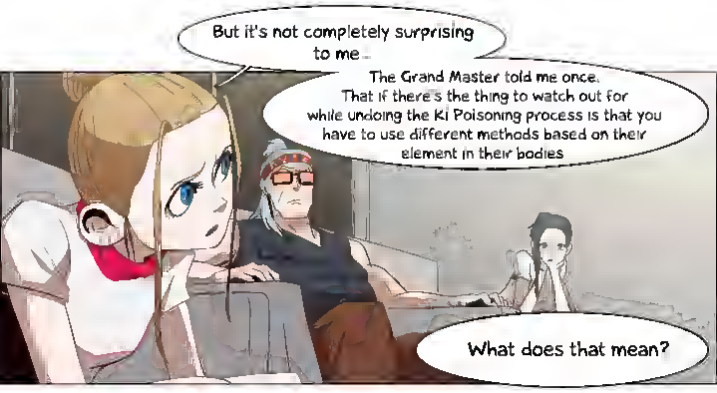
What happend? This kid just a few days ago couldn't even use a single drop of that Ki due to his Ki being disturbed, but now he can use it freely and it looks like his personality changed as well.

Sfx: Peek

Fight me again!!!

Sfx: Dash

What the hell...



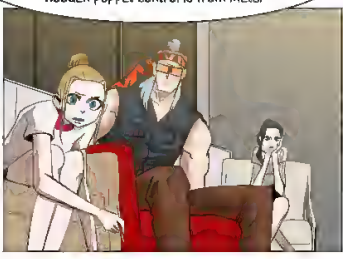
But it's not completely surprising to me...
The Grand Master told me once. That if there's the thing to watch out for while undoing the Ki Poisoning process is that you have to use different methods based on their element in their bodies
What does that mean?

Even if average people don't use ki in their average lives they still have their own vessle and a unique power.

We'll use Wu Xing to explain the theory

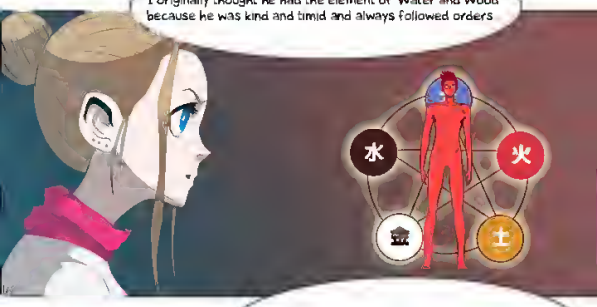
Gramp Suksoo here has the element of 'Earth and Gold' and will usually use Bold moves

The skill Rock Breaker gramps here uses comes from Earthen element, on the other hand his skill wooden puppet control is from Metal



But... Should I say Aran was a little different?

I originally thought he had the element of Water and Wood because he was kind and timid and always followed orders



But when I shook his core I felt a presence of Fire element instead

That's impossible!

His qualitys were definitely that of Water and Wood! It's impossible for Fire to fit between those two!

I know that! That's why I said it's weird! Are you sure that kid isn't related to someone from Murim?!

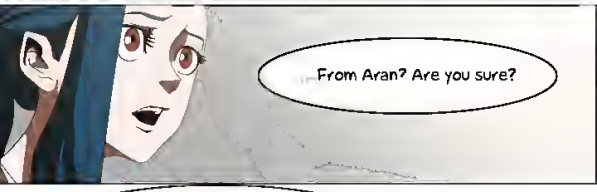
We don't know for sure... We just know that he doesn't have any ill intent and he doesn't have any sports reflexes

Hmm

I felt something strange a while back too.

I knew it!

When I had him train for my skill Rock Breaker I wasn't sure but I noticed something
But however when I was forced to touch his Ki to defeat the Twins I definitely noticed it...
I already knew he was gonna get Ki poisoned from it but I had to make sure, I knew you were going to undo it anyways...
You're the worst you know that?
When I connected to his Ki in order to control him, I felt a dark presence that I've never felt before.



I'm definitely sure. The Grand Master's Ki is clear and pure so it's probably being supressed to its maximum extent but his instincts are...

very faint but I'm sure I felt nothing but ..

Sfx. Gulp

...Chaos, and an Endless Darkness that followed with it

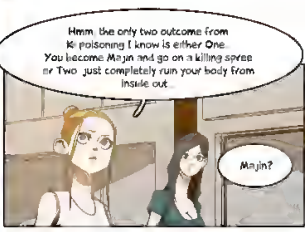
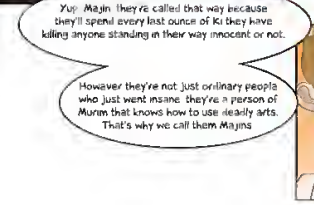
Aran is stealing all the skills from Murim?



Hmm.. the only two outcome from Ki poisoning I know is either One.. You become Majin and go on a killing spree or Two. just completely ruin your body from inside out..
Majin?



Yup. Majin. they're called that way because they'll spend every last ounce of Ki they have killing anyone standing in their way innocent or not.
However they're not just ordinary people who just went insane. they're a person of Murim that knows how to use deadly arts. That's why we call them Majins

Aran has not fell low enough to be classified as a Majin yet

If he really was a Majin we wouldn't be able to talk to him let alone have enough intellegence to steal secrets from other Clans

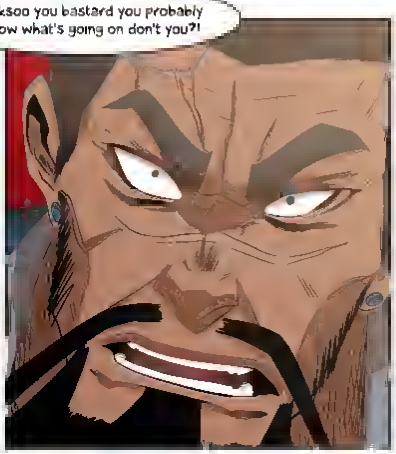
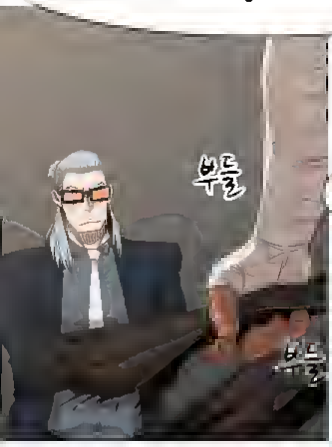
Sfx: Scared

I've been an elder for a long time now but that was the first time anyone's been so arrogant towards me!

Suksoo you bastard you probably know what's going on don't you?!



Who the hell is this "Aran Daehyup" and where the hell is he?! Answer me right now or so help me...

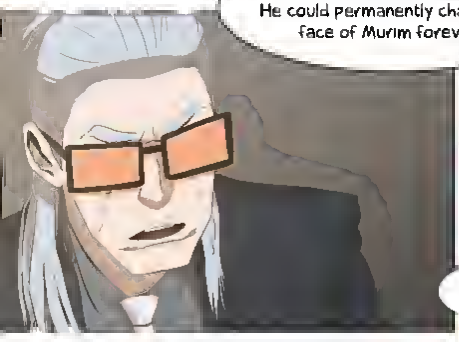


God damn. t calm down and listen to me. This is much bigger then what you and I originally thought

I know that the robots are a huge problem and that you guys are moving to destroy the main family

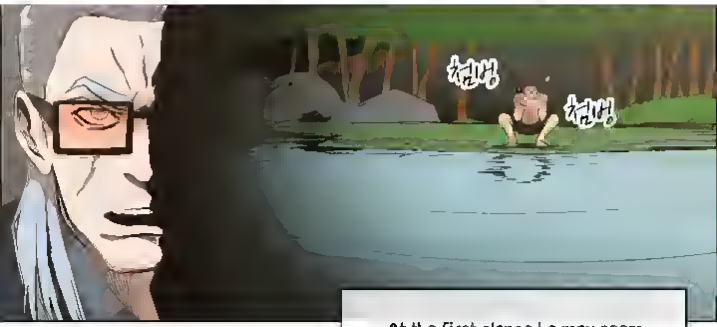
But this kid... is a completely different story

If we train this kid...
He could permanently change the face of Murim forever...



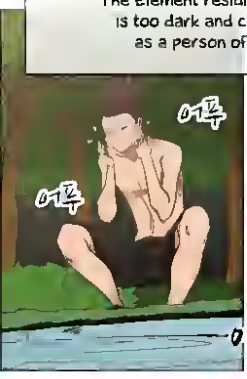
He has incredible potencial as the next face of Murim
And... There is his 'Element"

Sfx: Splash Splash



At the first glance he may seem like just another ordinary boy but...

The Element residing in his body is too dark and chaotic to fit as a person of "Murim"



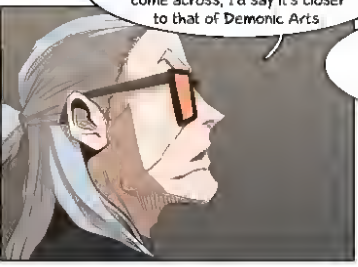
Sfx; Splatter~

Sfx : Ouch!

Sfx : Murky

His element isn't part of the Wu Xing, It's pure chaos Darkness descended itself

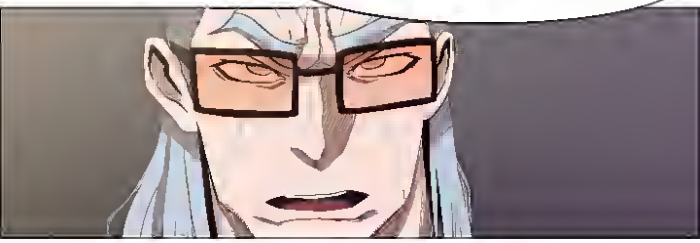
If you looked at Aran's skills you could probably tell that it wasn't part of any skills we've come across, I'd say it's closer to that of Demonic Arts



Stop your nonsense! No matter how talanted he is, he shouldn't be able to face someone like me whose trained for tens of years!

It's a long story

But the 500 year old Ki that belonged to the Grand Master resides in his body now



Sfx : Flinch

You probably already saw... That child couldn't withstand the pure force of the Ki residing within him and was put under Ki Poisoning, but was forcefully removed so he's in the state of Majin
Any normal humans should've died due to the force of that Ki But that child won the battle against that Ki
If we lead Aran in the right path he could become the next Leader... No the next Hero for the entire Murim world!!
....Hmph, you mean Champion for the Main Family...

So that Kid has all the Ki that the Grand Master had and he survived the Ki Poisoning process that should've killed him. That means his instincts is closer to that of branch families! I should catch him before you!

I could train that kid to become the next greatest assassin that the Murim world has ever seen before!!

Sfx : Grip

You're out of your mind! You don't know what'll happen if you collide the Branch Ki with The Grand Master's Pure Ki!

Sfx: Gets up

Suksoo I won't fall for your tricks again! We of the Branch always suffered thanks to your tricks and plans but no longer!

The appearence of those Robots and now this Aran kid!! This is no coincidence!

This is a Codex of a type.
In fear that someone would abuse their skill the Master of these specific schools made sure so that no one would be able to just learn their skills, so they wrote down everything in wrong manners.

You need a pass phrase to decode these, I've heard that some Clans do this but this is the first time for me as well.

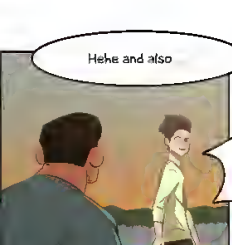
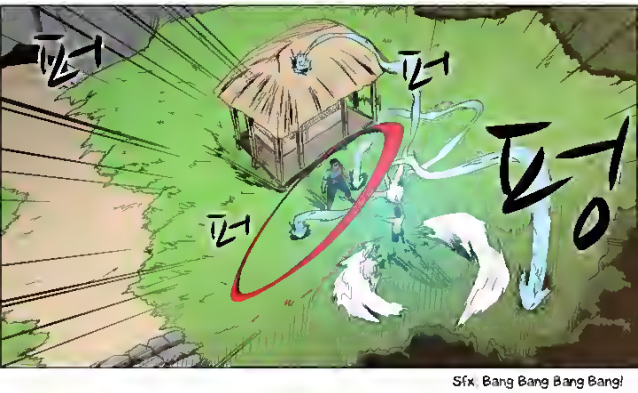
Transformation Skill! I learned it for fun
I... It's weird. Even if it's half correct It's weird...
Is that the reason to choose my face?

Sfx: Depressed

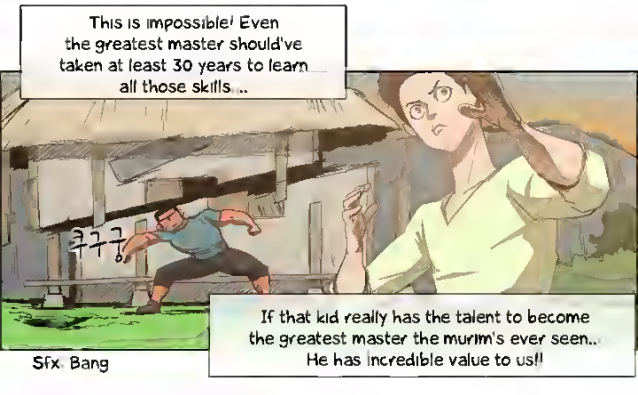
Sfx: Rustling



Sfx: Haat!

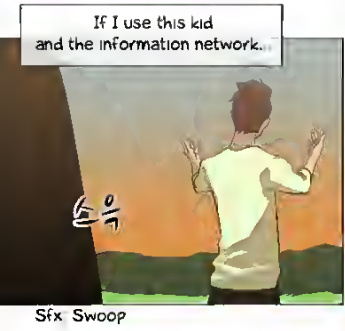


Sfx: Bang Bang Bang Bang!



This is impossible! Even the greatest master should've taken at least 30 years to learn all those skills...
쿠구궁
If that kid really has the talent to become the greatest master the murim's ever seen.. He has incredible value to us!!

Sfx: Bang



Sfx: Swoop

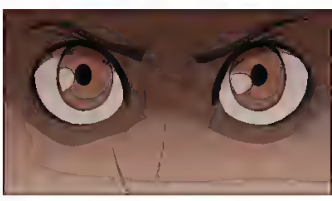
Sfx: Gulp

I could be the next Elder of Murim! No— Take over the world!!

Owner, Why is aiming these so hard?
Aran Daehyup It s probably because you haven t had time to train like the others yet
Before trainee trains their body they spent at least 5 to 10 years learning how to control their Ki!
So even if you're able to use your Ki to its maximum extent you won't be able to control it.
Really? Then it's completely useless for me even if its strong if it doesn't hit it s useless

That s correct...
Is there a way around it?
There is one I can think of...
Really?

Of course We'll have to go stealing one more time but...
I guarantee you without a doubt that this will make you unchallenged in this planet

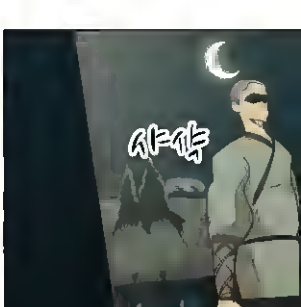


Sfx: Peek

Sfx: Tap Tap

There is total of 3 Clans that can stand shoulder to shoulder with Hongmoon Clan and One of them the Clan of "Nok Yoo"...

Has a Wooden Sword and a Medicinal Pill that can increase your Proficiency of Ki usage significantly.



Sfx: ShaSha

The Nok Yoo Clan has been in veils for a long time. Only the highest respected members can go in and out of their Dojo, otherwise they reject everyone else
스윽

We cannot afford to get caught here Aran Daehyup! The Clan of Nok Yoo will have masters that're of different Calibre than the ones we've hit!

I have an idea!

What's your Ide..
Ughh!! Aggghhh!!

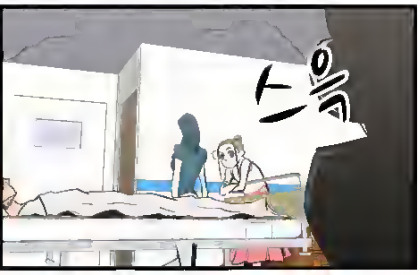
Damn it! I don't know much either!!

Sfx: Swoop



Sfx: Gets up

Sfx: Ugh

Oh my goodness Aran Daehyup what happend to you?!?

What're you doing here?!

I'm just a loyal servant of Aran Daehyup!

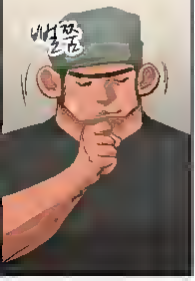
I'll use all of my information to support Aran from now on!

Loyal Servant?

Yup! Just a Loyal Servant!

Sfx. Smirk

Ahem. Just to explain the current situation



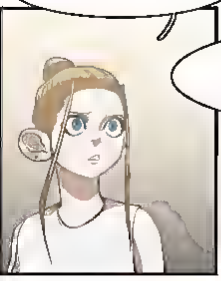
The Disciples are currently trapped in the under ground prison, and they've just killed most of the remaining robots and tossed them in there with the Disciples, but there's a wide spread chaos amongst the Murim

The Elders of the each clans are suspecting that the robots are trying to control the people of Murim in order to make an army...

Or create a group of assassin who'll target important people in other countries.

The people of Murim are proficient and hiding their presence and changing their appearence so it's possible that the robots are aiming for world domination

What kind of logic is that ?

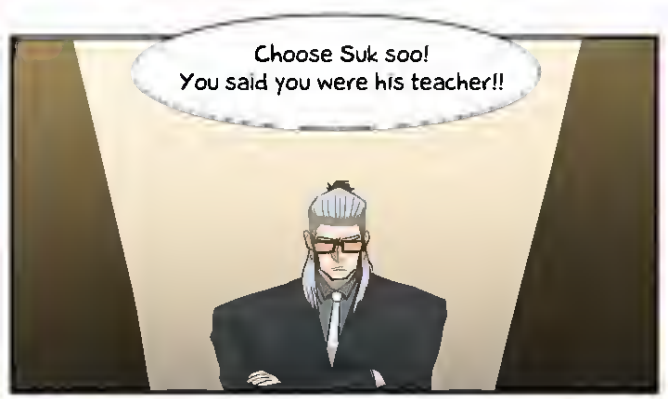


Well the reason why the Grand Master split the family into two parts was because of that same reason

To control the people of Murim so that they wouldn't abuse their power in attempt to dominate the world... That's why there was a war between the two families, because of the stupid Branch Elders before the current one

But throwing the robots aside
The main and the branch will conflict in the flames of war yet again... There may be a temporary peace...
But they're probably anxious to kill each other out there right now
Huhuhu... When the War breaks out Aran is going to be worth alot more money thanks to the 500 Yr old Ki inside of him
When that time comes I'll convince Aran...
What did you say?
No...Nothing! I said I'll take care of Aran from now on too...
Sfx_Pet Pet
Who was that child just now?! We must throw him into prison now!!
Yes! We need to throw him into prison! He's too dangerous as he is currently!!
What the hell do you mean...

The main probably is trying to compare Aran's KI to that of Demonic school and will attempt to extract the KI out of him in the under ground prison
While the branch is probably trying to put him into prison so they can sneak in and break him out later



Choose Suk soo!
You said you were his teacher!!

If you attempt to defend him or Scorpion We'll toss you into prison ourselves!!
What do you mean prison?! We'll kill him!!

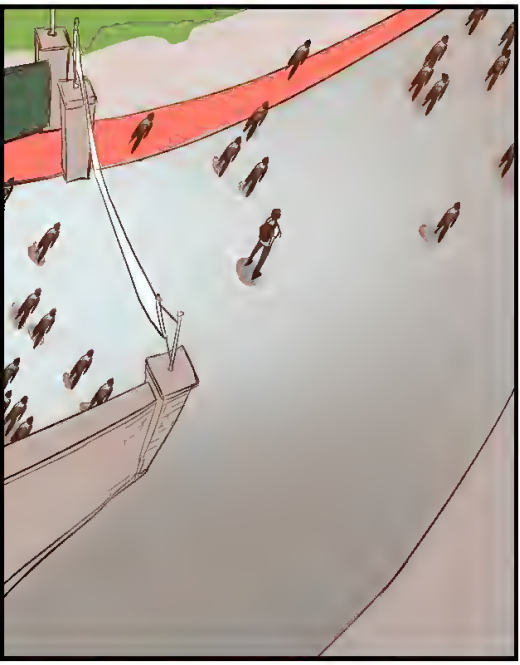
Hey did you see this?
스윽

What is it?
팔락
Hmm
팔락

Revenge of the Masters huh ?
스윽
Sfx: Looks

TLN: PC room is where kids in Korea go to pay to play computer



Sfx. Hahahaha

Sfx: Tap Tap

Sfx: Surprised

Sfx: Tada

Sfx: Quiet

Are you Eun Aran bastard?!

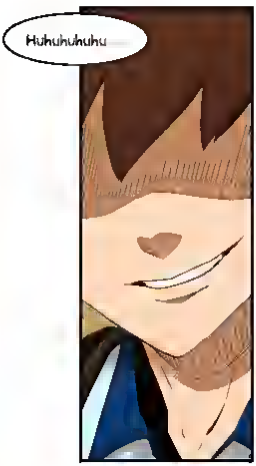
Sfx: Turns

I heard you stole the Grand Masters Ki and that you refused to obey direct order from the Elders

If you come peacefully we swear in the honor of our clan that we will not harm you

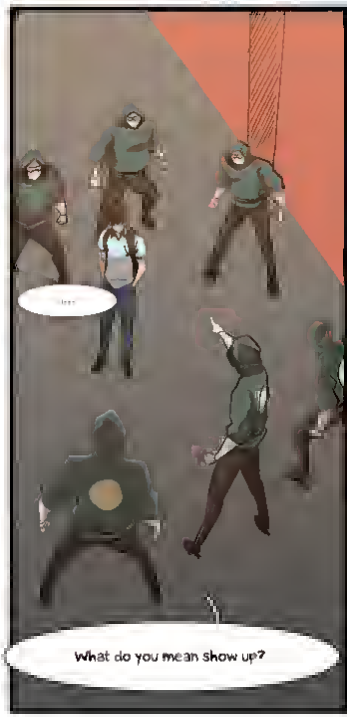
Sfx: Cha Cha Cha Chak!

Sfx Da Dum!



What's so funny?!

Because I figured you guys would show up
스윽

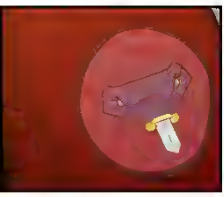


What do you mean show up?

Who are you lookin.. !!
샤샥
샤샥
Why is the disgusting main family clan doing here?!

Are you Mr Aran? The Elders of Branch and the respective Clan Masters are ready to welcome you

We will not deceive you in any way like those disgusting fellows over there



Come our faction!
We'll give you
money and power beyond your dreams!!

Sfx: Winds~

You dare bribe him?!

Sfx: Angry

Shut your trap!!
Or we swear we'll kill you on the spot!!

Really now....
!!

It's because of you maggots that I can't enjoy my time with my friends!!
스윽
촤륵

SFx. Opens

Wh... What was that?!
Are you refusing our offer?!

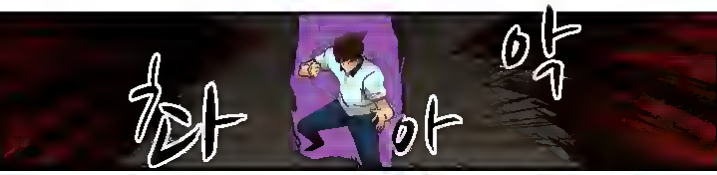
Every single time... You guys chase me after the school ends...
툭

I'm getting tired of this I'll take care of you all right here.
우둑

Even if you are the current owner of that Ki,
We already heard that you accidently received it!!
Do you think you can beat us?!
Even if you have vast Ki it's no use
if you don't know how to use it!!
샤샥
샤샥

Sfx Sha Sha Sha

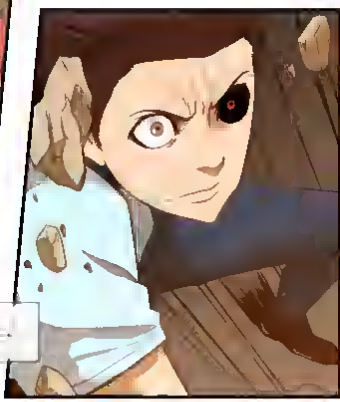
SFx Oom Oom



Sfx: Chwaaaaaa

Sfx: Lights!

After that fight...



Alot of things changed...

Master Suksoo
took care of alot of things.

I originally thought he was just a crazy person

But it turns out he cares about me more than anyone else in Murim.

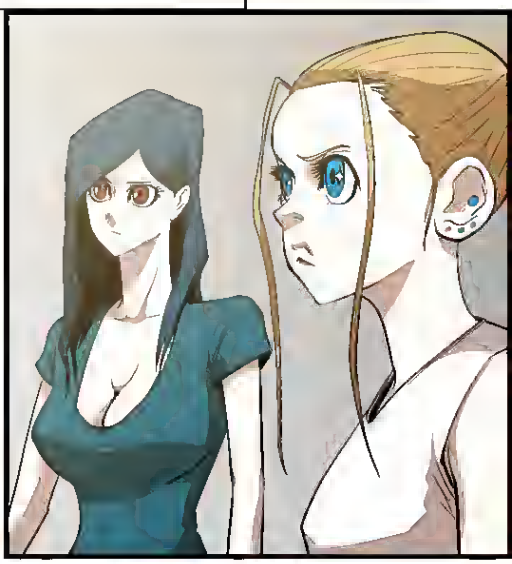
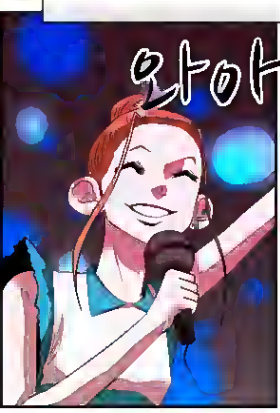
Haeji still hates being called Elder sister, but she went back to her old job as an Idol.



She gave us bunch of extra tickets so we could come by and say hello



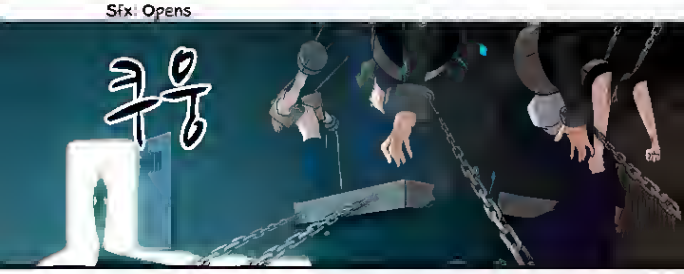
Sfx; Wahhhh!!

Sfx: Uwaaaa~!

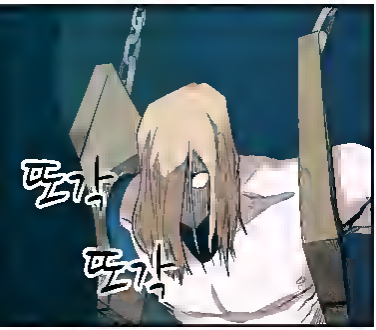
These tickets are really expensive because of her popularity.

The identities of these Robots still remain a mystery.

Sfx: Opens

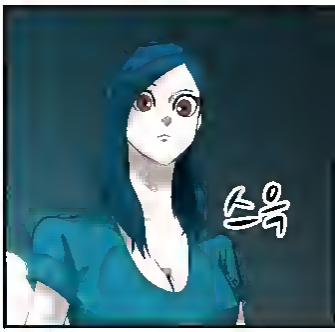


Those that followed Scorpion in order to kidnap the Masters of Murim dispersed as soon as they saw that Scorpion was defeated



Sfx. Tap Tap

Who were they?
Why were they targetting us?



Sfx. Swoop

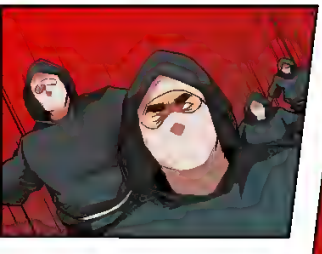
I wonder if restaurant Owner was saying the truth
Or could it be they're here to nullify the Murim all together?

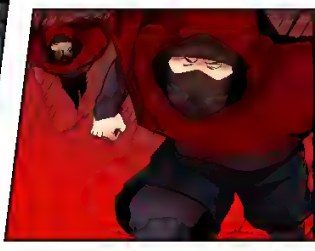
Well, I'll think about that in the future sometime...

Sfx: Season 2 spoiler behind the professor

I'm not quite out of danger yet...

The Main Family wasn't as good of a people as I imagined them to be

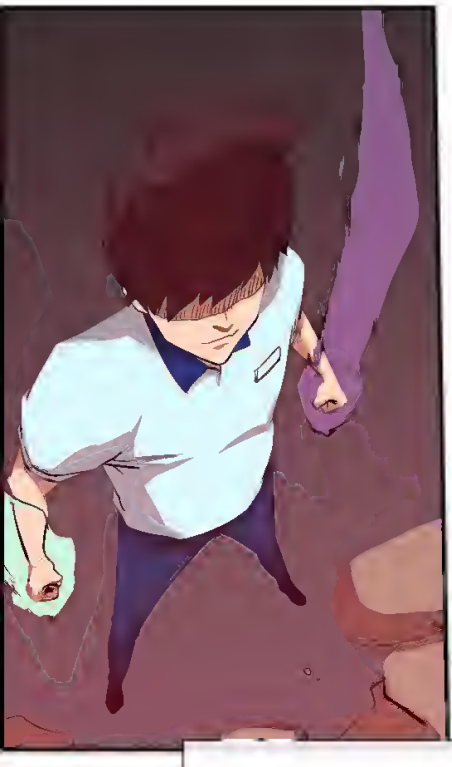




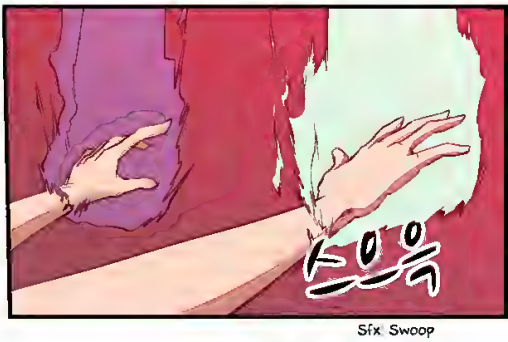
The Branch Family . Was the same

It may surprise you, but they're the same all together in my point of view, because they're all after me for power...

Me? I... Decided to go back to school afterall...

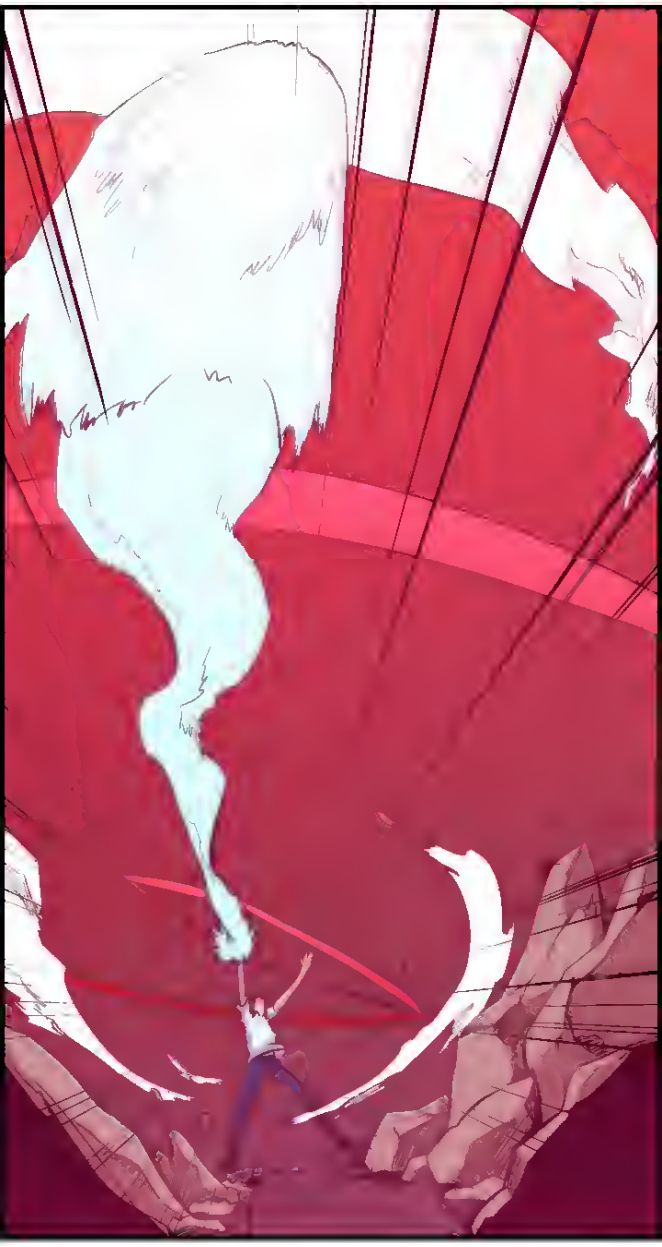


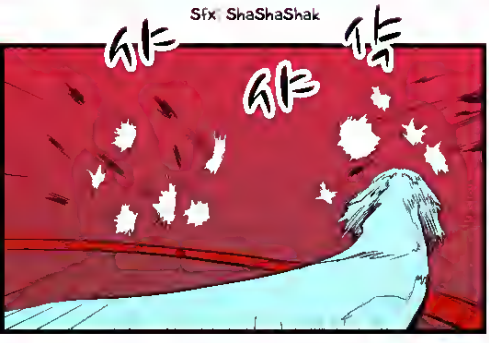
Everyone in School gave me quite the talk down because of how long I was gone for.



Sfx: Swoop

It's fine now, everything is normal.





Sfx: ShaShaShak

Sfx: Bang Bang Bang Bang!
콰콰광

Sfx: Shooooo~

Sfx: Tzzzzzzzzzz

After I inherited this 500 Year old Ki from the Grand Master
My life changed significantly.

Sfx: Shooo~

My life is always in trouble due the Robots constantly attacking me in the dark.

To top that off assassins from Clans come after me almost every night.

You ask If
Am I scared?
Do I regret it?

Sfx. Tap Tap

Sfx. Tap Tap Tap!

Dunno...
